The Uniform Crime Reporting Program is a nationwide cooperative statistical effort of approximately 17,000 city, state and county law enforcement agencies. The program has been administered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) since 1930. The Tulsa Police Department participates in this program. The crime numbers shown above is part of that effort.

Statistics provided by Systems Development and Support, from ITS/Records UCR section. Totals include attempts which may result in adjustment of numbers at a later date.
